

The “ICE forest initiative” for a CO₂-neutral participation

ICE team will plant one oak tree for every company that drove to ICE'19 in Vienna. The forest will be planted in Zagreb, where the idea of the International Charter Expo originated. All trees will be named by the respective companies and the forest's status will be updated to all tree-owners. The ICE forest will be replenished every year, proportional to the number of ICE participants.

